

How Then Shall We Live?

A Rewilding the Way Wilderness Adventure

Taos, NM Sept 8-15, 2018

A week-long immersion in the wild to bring out the deep wisdom, fierce joy, and sacred strength of men aged 18-70

Activities: Come wade into the wilds of New Mexico! Highlights include homemade meals in an adobe hacienda, visiting Taos Pueblo, encountering Earthships, plunging into the waters and canyons of the Rio Grande Gorge, exploring hot springs, wilderness solos, songs and campfires, morning meditations, and biblical analysis in wild places--all designed to open radically new possibilities for men seeking a wilder way of fierce love for God, humanity, and our precious earth. Guided by Todd Wynward, for adventurous men 18+.

Themes: How can we nurture rooted relationships and practice radical discipleship? How can we be in today's consumer culture but not tamed by it? I live in two worlds, striving to follow the radical Jesus while still being shackled to consumerism, security, affluence and busyness. Maybe you do too. We are the tribe of the semi-transformed, the halfway-there, the partially-free. We want to live more transformatively, but we've made important life commitments—meaningful vocations, rooted relationships, home mortgages, community involvements—that we don't intend to break.

Is there any hope for sorry half-disciples like us? Luckily, yes. God knows our hearts. God created us, inconsistent and imperfect, to be just as we are, and expects us to care for loved ones and seek to walk the Jesus Way.

What kind of a better "good life" might we embody in America today—one that is better for us and our world? Come join a circle of men pursuing deep questions--there is a journey of doing and undoing to begin. The first thing we need to do is come to the wilderness to clear the cobwebs and reclaim our incredible, wild potential as beloved children and families of God.

Cost & Registration: $495. Travel to/from the Taos area not included. Contact stevet@mennonitemen.org stating your intent to register. With deposit, receive registration materials and personal equipment list. Personal equipment—backpacks, sleeping bags, tarps, tents, etc--may be borrowed at no charge. Group size: 8-24 men.

"In Rewilding the Way, Wynward offers wild hope for a tame world. If you are yearning for an earth-honoring, despair-crushing, culture-resisting, Jesus-following response to the crises of our times, look no further..." --Richard Rohr

Biography

Todd Wynward is an author, father, public school founder, small-scale farmer, wilderness educator and Mennonite minister for watershed discipleship. He has been engaged in education reform and social change movements for twenty years, and has spent more than a thousand nights outdoors. He and his wife Peg started an Outward Bound public school and are founders of TiLT, an incubator for intentional living in Taos, NM. His new non-fiction book, Rewilding the Way: Break Free to Follow an Untamed God, was published recently by Herald Press. Contact him at toddwynward@gmail.com, and find more of his writings and doings at taostilt.org.